

Person Centred Dementia Care

A one-year course in London, merging Person Centred Care and Culture Change

“An Emotional Journey”©

12 Workshops over 12 Months

This course is focused on achieving skills and culture change in care homes. Participants from other services are welcome and they will need to be able to transfer the course manual into their own work role.

‘ The future is household models of care - Dementia Care Matters leads the way with The Butterfly Household Model of Care -learn on this course how to create your own version ‘ Dr David Sheard

Venue: TBC

September 2018 – July 2019

1 day per month – for full course dates please go to www.dementiacarematters.com

£825 + VAT for one place

The Course includes copies of two books authored by Dr David Sheard: ‘Being - an Approach to Life and Dementia’ and ‘Growing – Training that Works in Dementia Care’

Dr David Sheard – Care Personality of the Year

“David’s beliefs, values, boundless energy and passion have driven changes that too many were only a dream. His herculean effort has revolutionised the culture of care nationally and internationally.”

Peter Priednieks – Deputy CEO

Peter is the most experienced member of Dementia Care Matters, working alongside David since the first Butterfly Care Home began in 1995 – Peter is known for his expert training skills with a calm and reflective style.

Key Features

This course gets to the essence of Feelings Matter Most and the Butterfly Approach.

A flexible practice-based learning opportunity.

Designed for Directors, Managers, Nurses, and Senior Care Workers working with people living with a dementia who wish to positively focus their work.

- Focused on achieving skills and culture change in care homes
- Addresses the complex and challenging issues within the field of dementia care
- Twelve days attended workshops across the year
- Invaluable online manual

Benefits:

- Learning why dementia care matters so much emotionally and practically, what the very best in dementia care looks, sounds and feels like and what it takes to achieve this
- Experiencing a balanced training of direct, emotional and passionate style, along with a reflective, thoughtful and caring approach and a fun-loving energy
- Returning to work after these sessions fired up and inspired with the emotional drive to really know how to change things

Content

- Key steps in achieving culture change in dementia care homes
- The essence of the Butterfly Household™ Model of Dementia Care
- The method of qualitative observations of people's lived experience and quality of interactions
- Ways for staff to adopt the Butterfly Care Home approach and knowing how to be a Butterfly
- Training on emotional intelligence as the primary competency in dementia care
- Attached leadership skills in dementia care
- The 'Look' Checklist to improve the environment
- The Model of Care - 'The Butterfly Household Model of Care®' - Action Checklist
- The real meaning behind and how to reach people's emotions and expressions of 'behaviour'
- The language of a person living with a dementia and how to develop your feeling based communication skills
- Skilled approaches in safeguarding balanced with a human rights approach to sexuality, intimacy, relationships and assessing consent
- Specialist approaches in later stage dementia care

For booking forms and further information, including in-house courses specific to your organisation, please contact:

Dementia Care Matters, Brightwire House,
Suite 4/5, 114a Church Road, Hove BN3 2EB, UK

Tel: 00 44 (0) 1273 242335

Email: info@dementiacarematters.com

www.dementiacarematters.com