Topics covered in training with hospital staff

Establishing a feelings based approach in acute settings
How to establish a clear model of person centred care

The lived experience of people with a dementia in acute settings
Implementing qualitative observation in ward settings

Leadership matters in dementia care
Leading person centred dementia care in acute settings

Removing old cultures
How to shift a service, with features rooted in old cultures of care and working practices, to being more person centred.

The Butterfly approach
How to reduce the focus of routines on wards and improve well-being

Relationship centred care
Developing a proactive approach with families rather than reactive

Overcoming resource issues
How to work within the constraints.

2 day workshop for 15 staff.

Call: 01273 242 335 or 07889 000801
Email: info@dementiacarematters.com